

Date: 15.05.2026

This week has been Mental Health Awareness Week. Alongside our usual learning, we have placed an extra focus on wellbeing through our collective worship. Mrs Owen hosted a coffee afternoon, and some of the children thoroughly enjoyed taking part in 'The Big School Workout' live with Joe Wicks. In year two, the children have been learning about positive affirmations and using these to help encourage and celebrate each other.

One of our collective worship stories also included a self-care scavenger hunt. You will find an image of this to the right if you would like to try it at home with your child.

There are lots of interesting activities taking place in school today. Reception are looking forward to welcoming Zoo Lab into school this afternoon, bringing their learning about animals to life, and year one are making clay dragons as I type, using their designs to sculpt and shape the clay. I am sure there will be plenty of photos shared on Class Dojo for parents to see.

As our year two children are out on a trip next Friday, our usual celebration assembly will be held on Thursday next week. Please send any certificates, trophies or medals in on Thursday morning. Don't worry if you forget, we can always save them for the week after half term.

Thank you for your ongoing support. Have a lovely weekend.

Spotlight on

As this week is mental health awareness week, the information below outlines how we support the children's mental health in school.

Our Approach

- We create a safe, open culture where children can talk about feelings
- We use PACE and Emotion Coaching (playfulness, acceptance, curiosity, empathy) when supporting children
- We embed wellbeing through collective worship and PSHE sessions
- Wellbeing Wednesdays once per month builds knowledge of techniques that children can use to support their mental health
- We have restorative approaches to behaviour
- We provide targeted support for those children who need it
- We have strong partnerships with the Mental Health in Schools Team, RISE (CAMHS) and Family Wellbeing services

Zones of Regulation

- Zones of regulation is used throughout the entire school, right from nursery, to support children to recognise their feelings. The colours are outlined below:
 - Blue – sad, tired, unwell (may need rest or support)
 - Green – calm, happy, ready to learn
 - Yellow – worried, excited or frustrated (may need calming strategies)
 - Red – angry or overwhelmed (need time, space and adult support)
- Children build a toolkit of strategies such as breathing, movement breaks, quiet spaces and talking to adults to support regulation

Using Books to Support Mental Health

- We use a wide range of picture books to support children's understanding of feelings and emotions. Some reasons for this are:
 - Books help children recognise and name their feelings
 - Stories show characters overcoming worries and challenges
 - Reading together helps children feel safe to talk
 - Stories build empathy and understanding
 - Books reassure children that feelings are normal and manageable
- If we can support with recommendations of picture books to help your child, please let us know

Support in School

- We have mental Health First Aiders: Mrs Owen and Mrs Marson
- We have links with external services such as MHST, RISE and Family Wellbeing Service and can make referrals to these agencies
- We have focus weeks and sessions to teach children about how to be mentally healthy including Children's Mental Health Week, Anti-Bullying Week and Wellbeing Wednesdays

We are all aware of the growing use of technology in today's world. Technology has it pros and cons, but we cannot escape that it is here, and it will have an impact on all children and families.

The government have released a consultation as the next step to ensure children's experiences online are safe and to understand how technology impacts children's wellbeing.

If you would like to know about particular allergens in foods, please ask a member of the catering team for information. If your child has a school lunch and has a food allergy or intolerance you will be asked to complete a form to ensure we have the necessary information to cater for your child. We use a large variety of ingredients in the preparation of our meals and due to the nature of our kitchens it is not possible to completely remove the risk of allergen cross contact.

In Collective Worship

this week ...

In collective worship this week we have used picture books to explore themes linked to mental health as part of Mental Health Week. We have considered how we can find our happy, strategies we can use to help us to feel calm, and what to do when we have mixed emotions.

Empathy

Empathy means feeling with someone, not just feeling sorry for them. It is one of the best ways to be a kind friend and a good person. Empathy is not just noticing that someone is happy, sad, or hurt—you're trying to understand their feelings from their point of view and responding with kindness.

Examples of when you could be empathetic:

A friend is nervous before a test.

You might say: "I get nervous too. We've got this!"

Someone is sitting alone at lunch.
You might think: "I would feel sad if I were alone."
So, you could invite them to sit with you.

Our tips for empathy:

1. Pay attention to how people look and sound. Are they happy, sad, or upset? Look for clues in their body language to find out how they might be feeling.
2. Read a book or watch a TV show. Pick a character in the book or show and imagine how that character might feel. Do you think all the characters feel the same? Put yourself in their shoes!
3. Empathy drawing – if you like to get creative, you could try drawing a picture of how someone else might feel in a certain situation (e.g., "a child who has lost their favourite toy", "a child who is starting a new school").
4. Be kind with actions – even little things help – like sharing, listening, or giving a hug.
5. Include everyone – invite others to play, join in, or sit with you. Notice if someone is standing alone, sitting on a bench, or watching others play.
6. Kindness cards – consider making cards or notes for family, friends or classmates who might need a boost!

In Coventry and Warwickshire, for any urgent mental health concerns, contact the RISE Crisis Helpline available 24/7, by calling NHS 111. Alternatively, call 999 or visit A&E in an emergency, for example if medical attention is required.

MHST are available to support you and your school throughout the school year including term time and school holidays.

Book of the week

Title: Room on a Broom

Author: Julia Donaldson

Recommended by: Miss Holmes

Room on the Broom is a fun and entertaining children's story about friendship and kindness. The rhyming text makes it enjoyable to read aloud, while the colourful illustrations keep young readers engaged. The story teaches the importance of helping others and working together.

I'm sure you will find this book as exciting and fun to read as I do.

E-Safety tip of the week

TikTok (13+)

You can choose to have a public or private account. If you set your account to private, then only those you accept as friends can see your videos. To do this, go to your profile, tap the 3 line icon, tap Settings and Privacy, go to Privacy and turn on Private account (by default accounts for people under 16 are set to private).

Report inappropriate content: you can report an account, video, comment and message. Follow the instructions here: <https://support.tiktok.com/en/safety-hc/report-a-problem>

Family Pairing You can use Family Pairing to link your own TikTok account to your child's account. This will give you access to additional controls such as:

- Screen Time Management: Control how long your child can spend on TikTok.
- Direct Messages: Limit who can send messages to them or turn off direct messaging completely. Direct messaging is automatically disabled for registered accounts between the ages of 13 and 15.
